23 The Maltings, Malmesbury

The Property

Built around 1990, this attractive double fronted house has a stone facade and benefits from stone window surrounds with leaded-light double glazed windows. It is presented in excellent order with the current owners having refurbished the house in recent years. Works included replacement of the boiler, new kitchen units and a garden room. In addition they have created an en suite shower to the master bedroom.

The Accommodation

The front door leads into a hall with wood flooring that continues into the kitchen and cloakroom, the latter having a vanity basin and further built-in storage. There is a useful cupboard for coats and shoes. On the left is the good sized dual aspect sitting room, with double doors into the garden. The fireplace has a stone surround and is fitted with a gas coal-effect fire. The dining area has a deep under-stair cupboard and double doors into the garden room, which has a tiled floor and access to the garden. The kitchen at the front is well equipped with a built-in electric oven, gas hob and extractor over. The fridge, freezer and washing machine are all integrated and there is space for a dishwasher. There is a fitted water softener, a larder rack and magic corner cupboard. There is a window on the half landing overlooking the garden. The main landing has a linen cupboard which also houses the gas boiler. There is access to the loft which has a ladder and light. The master bedroom has extensive fitted wardrobes and an excellent en suite shower. There are two further double bedrooms and a single bedroom, currently used as a study. The family bathroom has a shower over the bath.

Outside

At the front there are areas of lawn flanking the path to the front door with a shrub border to the left hand side. At the rear there is a walled courtyard style garden which is paved with raised borders. External power and tap, with a gate leading to the rear. There is an area of communal garden adjacent to the river.

Garage

A short distance from the rear of the house is a block of four garages. The far left hand one belongs to the property and is of a generous size with power, light and eaves storage.

General

All mains connected. The gas fired combination boiler in the the cupboard on the landing. Council Tax band E - £2,932.62 payable for 2024/25. EPC rating band C - 70.
